

No Black. No White. Just The Blues.

B.B. King
1925 - 2015

His music brought us tears of joy ... tears of pain ... and now we shed tears of sorrow.

A legend – a King – has left us to join other Mississippi blues greats in the great beyond. Breaking down color barriers everywhere he went, B.B. will forever be Mississippi's Blues Boy ... and our most beloved ambassador to the world.

Today, Lucille sits silent for the first time in over half a century. We join her in her sorrow.

Rest in peace, B.B.
