

No One Has Ever Led the Pack Like Mississippi's Brett Favre.

On a balmy Saturday in July, 67,000 Green Bay Packers fans stood in Lambeau Field for four solid minutes offering cheers and thunderous applause ... an unprecedented ovation ... to welcome home Mississippi's own Brett Favre.

He holds virtually every significant NFL career passing record. He has the most consecutive starts by a player ... the most career victories by a quarterback ... is an 11-time Pro Bowler and the only player ever to be named the NFL Most Valuable Player three years in a row ...

Yes, the Gunslinger has accolades.

But what he was recognized for most by those 67,000 fans was his part in resurrecting one of the most storied franchises in NFL history – the Green Bay Packers. Now he is a member of the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame and his famous number 4 jersey has been retired.

Brett Favre. Once just an average boy from “the Kiln” who happened to love the game of football ... now himself loved by football fans the world over.

Congrats, Brett. Mississippi is so proud to call you our son.

MISSISSIPPI ...
Believe It!™
